HIGH SCHOOL IS . . .

a search for answers . . .

an effort to win . . .

a chance to learn . . .

a time when football games . . .

warm popcorn

friendships

hard learned lessons

unbearable happiness are woven together . . .

to make a unique person . . .

a Calvert student.

"Seniors at last!

World, here we come!"

The thoughts of seniors are centered on graduation.

*For four years they have worried through tests, laughed through assemblies,
and cheered through football games.*

*They have experienced moments of achievement,
laughter, excitement,
and sometimes disappointment.*

They realize that graduating from Calvert means adulthood is very close and they are ready to stand and meet the challenges.

Juniors are busy again!

Their year is full of activities, hard study, and plans.

But before long spring arrives with the excitement of their first prom.

Hours of work and fun result in beautiful prom decorations.

The year speeds quickly out of reach and with awe

the juniors realize they have just one more year at Calvert.

but they have also experienced the thrill of achievement and success.

Moments of victory and defeat will live in their memories.

SPORTS

URGED BY COACHES, FANS, SENECA'S WORK TO

Under the careful direction of Coach Milette; the Calvert backfield drills in ball-handling techniques.

Teammates congratulate Joe Zirger after his 77 yard touchdown run.

As the sled jolts under the power of training Calverters, Coach Riley examines blocking positions.

Coach McClellan observes the execution of a series of plays.

VICTORIES MULTIPLY AS MIGHTY SENECA HIT

Quarterback Joe Zirger drags a pawing Panther in his struggle for extra yardage.

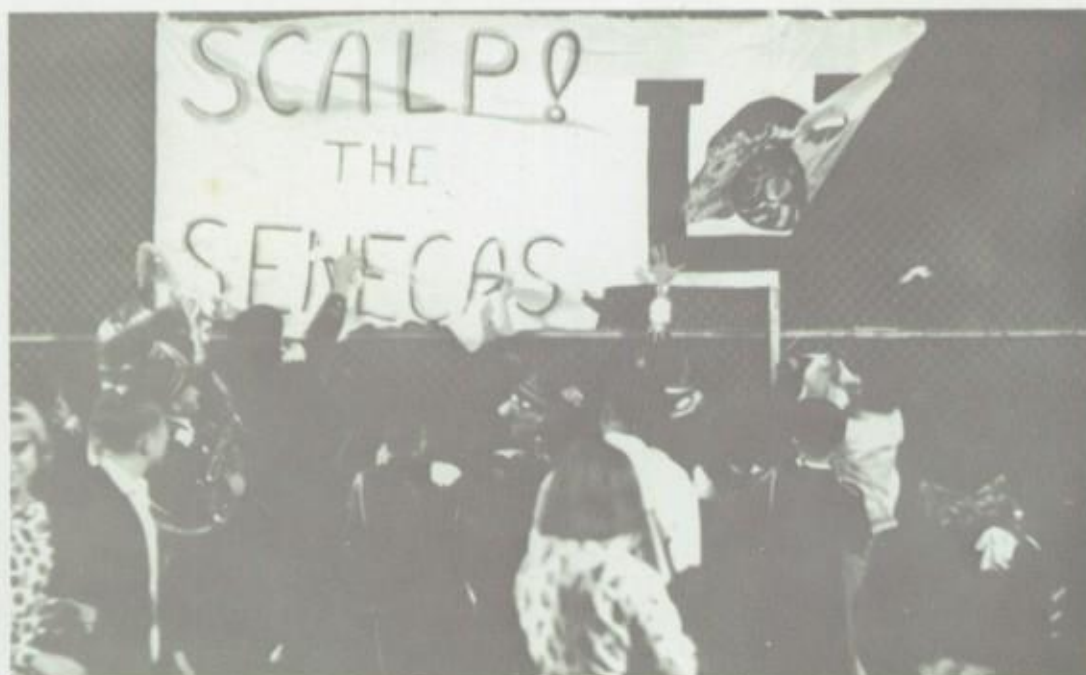

Crossing the end zone, Carl Werner captures the ball for the extra two points.

Roger Dariano breakthroughs the Gibsonburg line to face an awakened backfield.

Streaking forward, Carl Werner moves in on a Calvert aerial.

FIELD WITH WINNING FORCE

Calvert patriots attack Upper Rams' banner after a victorious session.

Halfback Joe Clark sprints for six points after speeding past defensive backs.

Defensive end Rick Reinhart loses his head over breaking up a Fremont pass.

Sophomore Bill Steinmetz eludes a Sandusky opponent on an end sweep.

SBC CHAMPS CELEBRATE UNDEFEATED SEASON;

Loyal Calvert fans mirror the pride and joy of the Homecoming Court as they urge the team to final victory.

Surrounded by Margaretta tacklers, Reg Dariano is dragged to the turf.

Trying to elude a Margaretta tackler, Bill Steinmetz moves the ball a few yards closer to victory and the SBC trophy.

QUEEN CANDEE REIGNS THROUGH FALL SHOWERS

Mud-splattered happy Senecas rejoice at the end of an undefeated season.

Happiness overwhelms Calvert's lovely queen, Candee Detwiler.

Calvert's 1965 Homecoming Queen, Candace Detwiler, is surrounded by her court, Mary Jane Welter, Patricia Guthrie, Laura Dow, and Elaine Arrington.

SUPER-SENECAS SWIM

Elated over the final game and an undefeated season, assistant coach McClellan emerges from a victory shower.

Peaceful congratulations among head coach Milletti and assistant coaches Riley and McClellan find their way into the hectic excitement of victory.

The Calvert locker room radiates the muddy jubilation of the SBC champs.

Wet and happy, Father Mueller participates in the liquid festivities after the last game of Calvert's undefeated season.

THROUGH SHOWER TO END SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Smiles of victory shine in the faces of the Senecas as they prepare another victim for the showers.

Mud-caked Senecas and baptized coaches hail the next shower victim.

AS BASKETBALL HOOPS VIBRATE ONCE MORE,

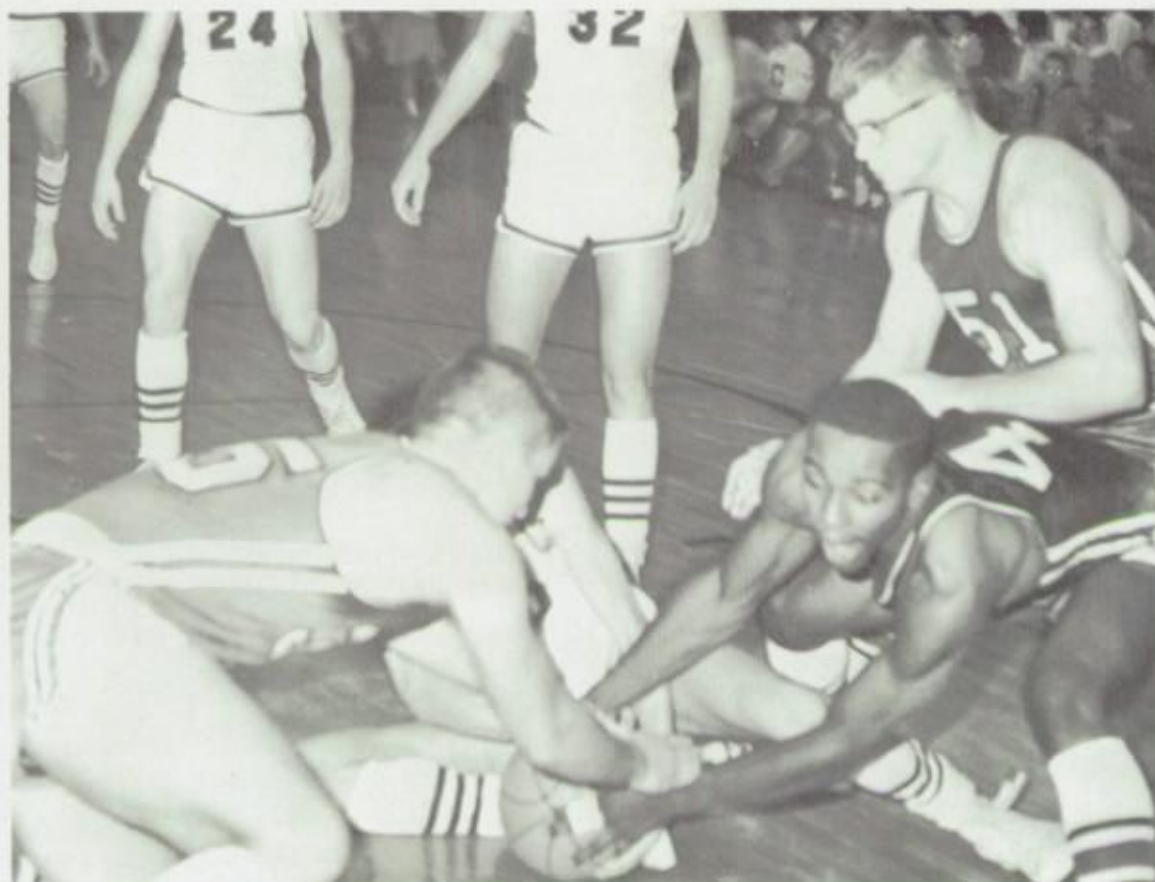

The 1966 fighting Senecas are: Joe Zirger, Chip Boes, Skip Zalar, Bill Carrigan, Bob Streacker, ; Chris Klopp, John Dunn, Rog Dariano, Fred Doepker, and Coach Leahy.

Opponent looks sick as Chip Boes lays the ball up for two points.

SENECA CAGERS ENTERTAIN HOMECOURT FANS

Tugging for the ball, John Dunn takes on three Gibsonburg defenders.

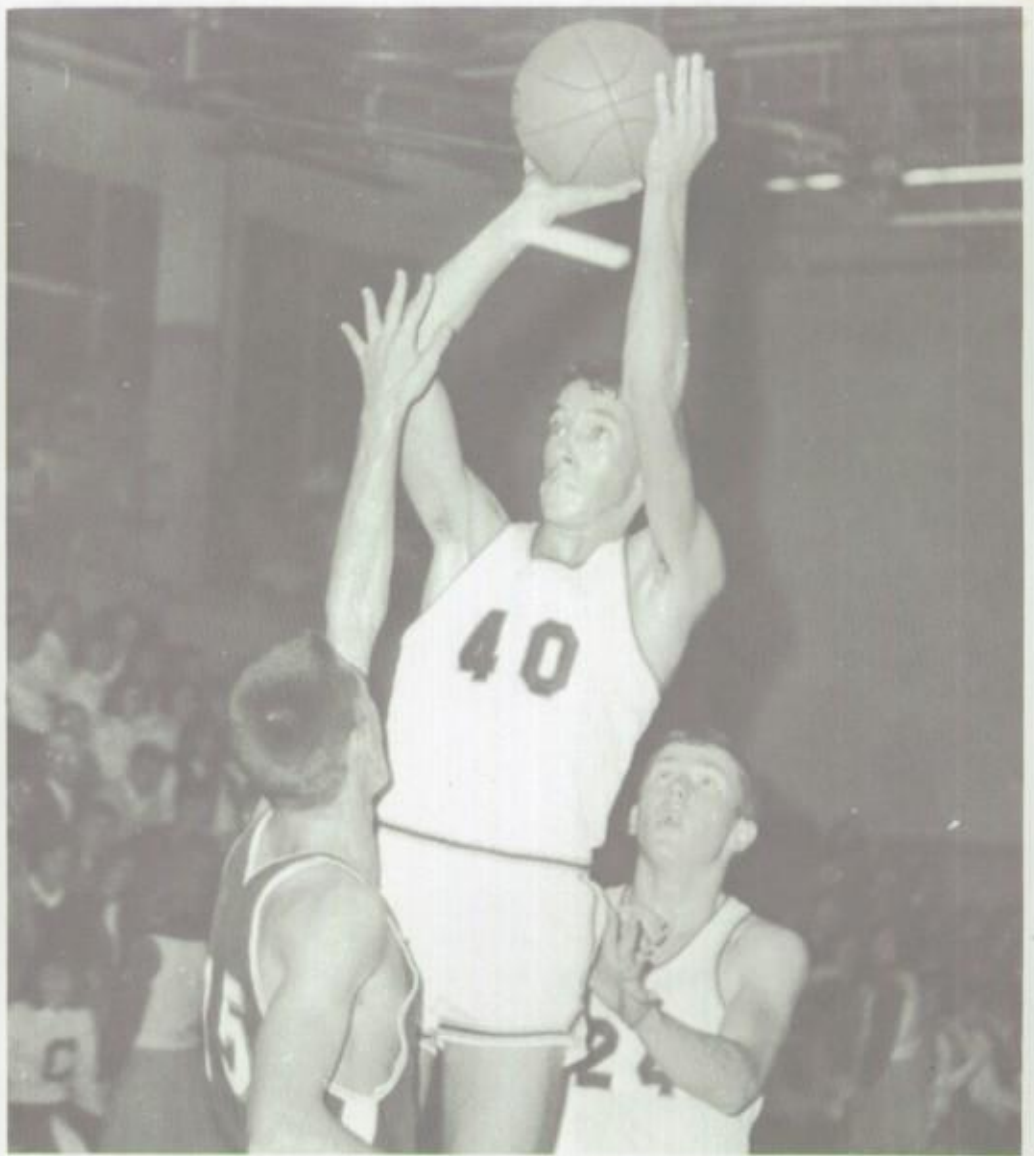

Cris Klopp hopefully tips a rebound to raise the score another two.

SEASON OF PERSEVERANCE,

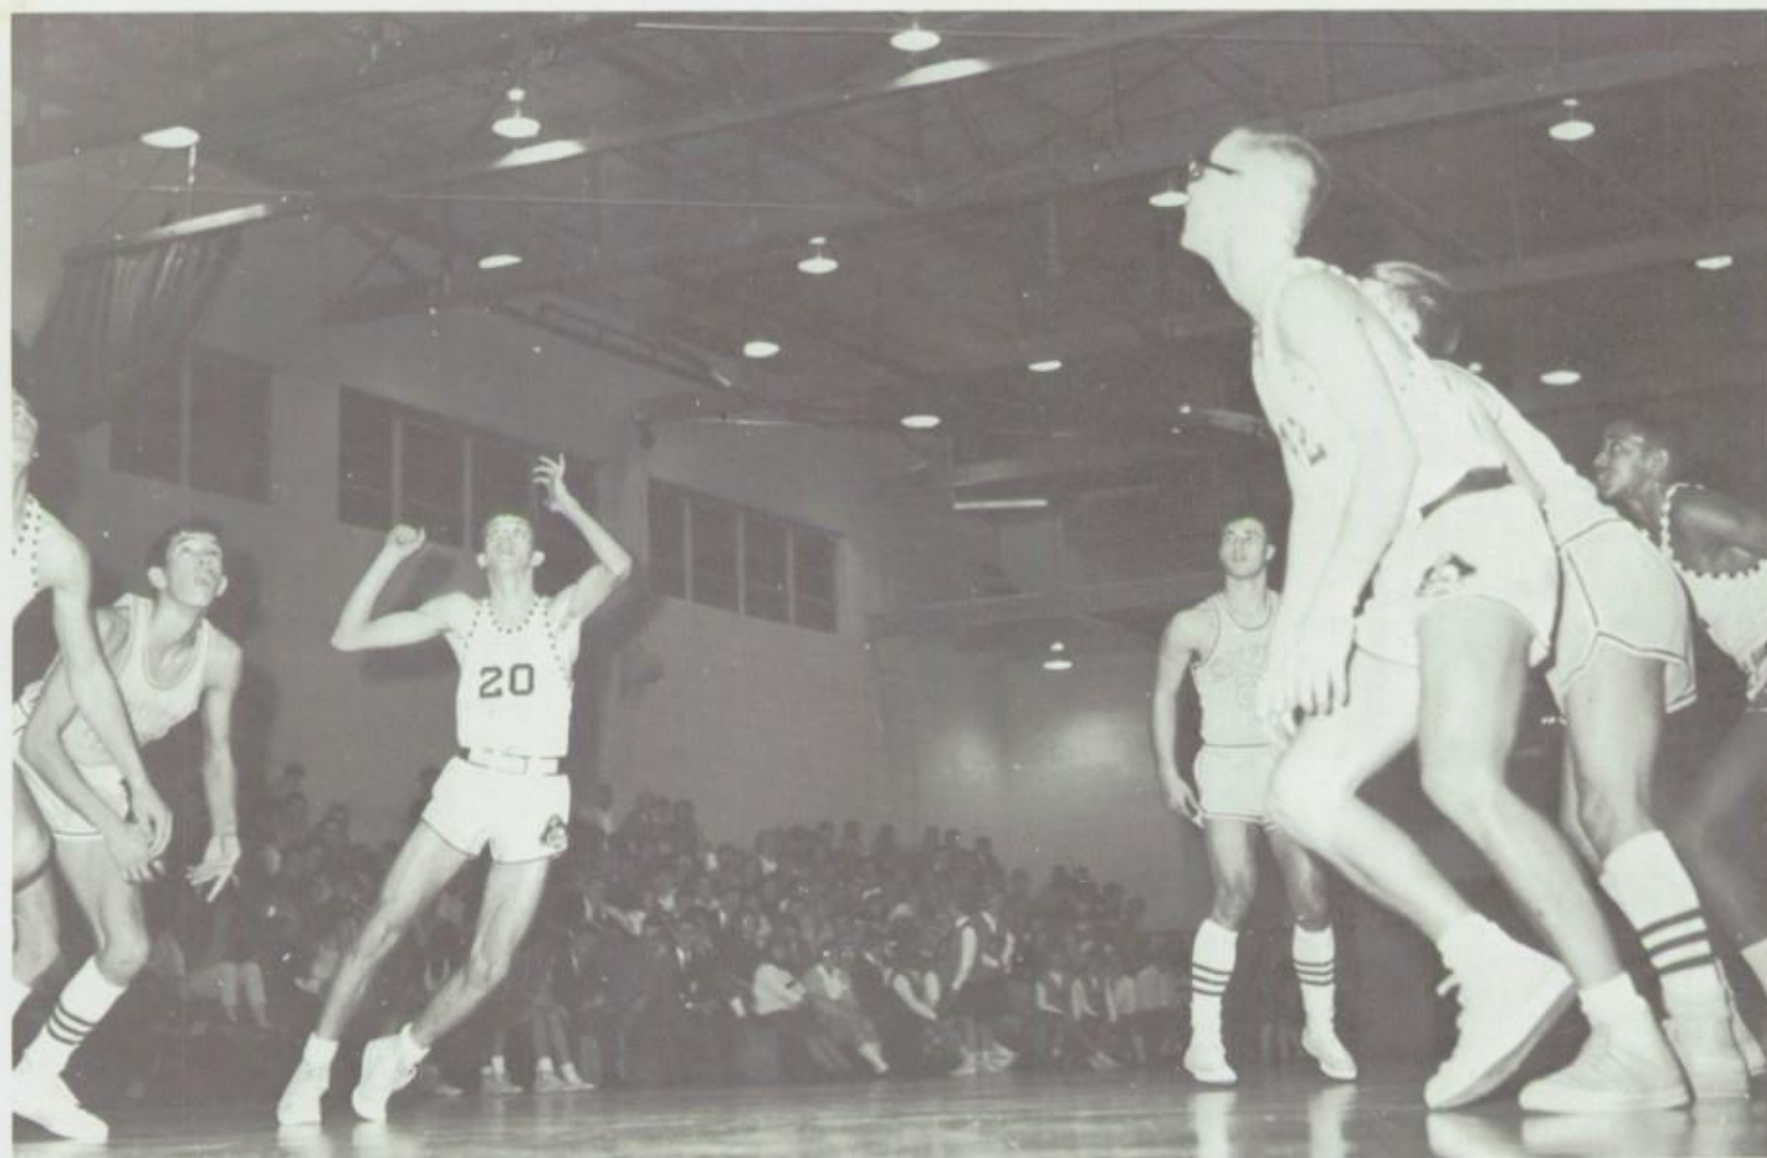

Ignoring his opponent's determination to block his shot, John Dunn puts the ball up for two points.

Senior guard Joe Zirger attempts to elude a Gibsonburg opponent.

Desperately trying to overcome his opponent, Bill Carrigan launches another two points.

HARD WORK PROVES REWARDING TO CALVERTEERS

A foul shot by Roger Dariane triggers action.

Straining to outjump his opponent, Bob Streaker shoots.

The ball explodes from his grip as Skip Zalar and a Perkins opponent collide in mid-air.

DIAMONDMEN DEFEND SANDUSKY BAY TROPHY,

Senior Joe Clark winds up for the starting pitch of the game.

First baseman Joe Zirger catches a pop foul.

Referee checks shoulder contact as Jerry Schlick pins his opponent to the mat.

Grappler Tom Kassa's face shows strain as he applies a headlock on opponent in Sandusky St. Mary match.

TENNIS, GOLF PLAYERS PRACTICE IN HOPES

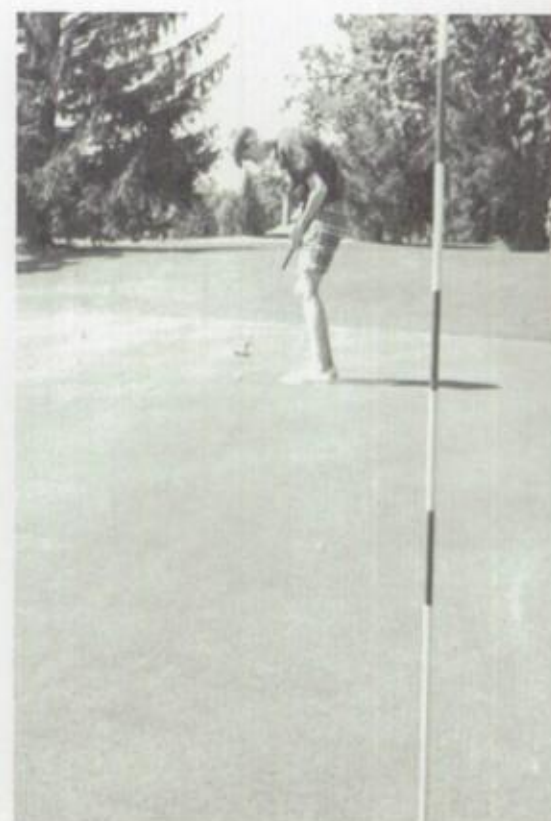

Concentrating, Mike Gillig studies the best approach for his next shot.

Surrounded by a cloud of dust, Chris Klopp blasts his way out of a sandtrap.

Junior Mark Leahy whips the ball over the net.

Player Frank Dore prepares for a putt.

OF VICTORY

With a quick backhand, Rick Reinhart returns the ball.

Face and hat make Ron Cortrell's opponents go down laughing.

Members of the girls' tennis team are, STANDING, M. Sendelbach, L. Ranker, S. Leahy, P. Koller, A. Callaghan. KNEELING, M. Mathias, P. King, A. Fisher.

With a powerful swing, Rad Ewing completes a return.

Wait until Tom Cadwellader sees where the ball is.

Leaping, Dave Kuhn drives the ball over the net.

For the second year the band marches under the direction and leadership of drum major Mark Leahy.

Highlighting the halftime performances with their unique and lively routines were Calvert majorettes Shirley Breidenbach, Elizabeth Blust, Laura Dow, and Darlene La Fountaine.

FALL KEEP SENECA BAND BUSY ALL YEAR LONG

To the tune of "Alley Cat" Calvert's marching band puts forth another spectacular half-time performance.

The band closes another half-time performance with Calvert's song done in a block-C formation.

CHEERLEADERS ADD PEP TO GAMES,

Greedy arms reach for the ball as freshmen Pat Gillig, Mike Troiano, and Allen Lucius battle it out with sophomores in the annual colorday games.

Smashing a senior opponent and gritting his teeth, 5'3" center Ron Corthell, assisted by Rick Swint stretches for the stuff and two points.

"P--I say P-E, P-E-P S-Q-U-A-D, Pep Squad!"

CLASSES BATTLE FOR DECISION ON COLOR DAY

This trio of smiling reserve cheerleaders, Jude Ann Valentine, Linda Seitz, and Kathy Welty, adds pep and high spirits to all little Seneca games.

CLUBS HELP ACTIVATE STUDENTS IN SCHOOL

Chemistry is not all work. Club members improvise lab tools to pop a little corn for the gang.

Spanish club chairman, Dorothy Akers, attentively awaits Robert Kuhn's report.

Trying to promote school interest in current events, Radford Ewing and David Kimmet gather material for discussions in Civics club.

President of the French Club, Jane Warnement, calls bingo at one of the club meetings.

SPIRIT, RESPONSIBILITIES

President of the Art Club Karen Barnhart, right along with Judy Dryfuss and Teresa Leahy discuss plans for the posters which will advertise "My Fair Lady."

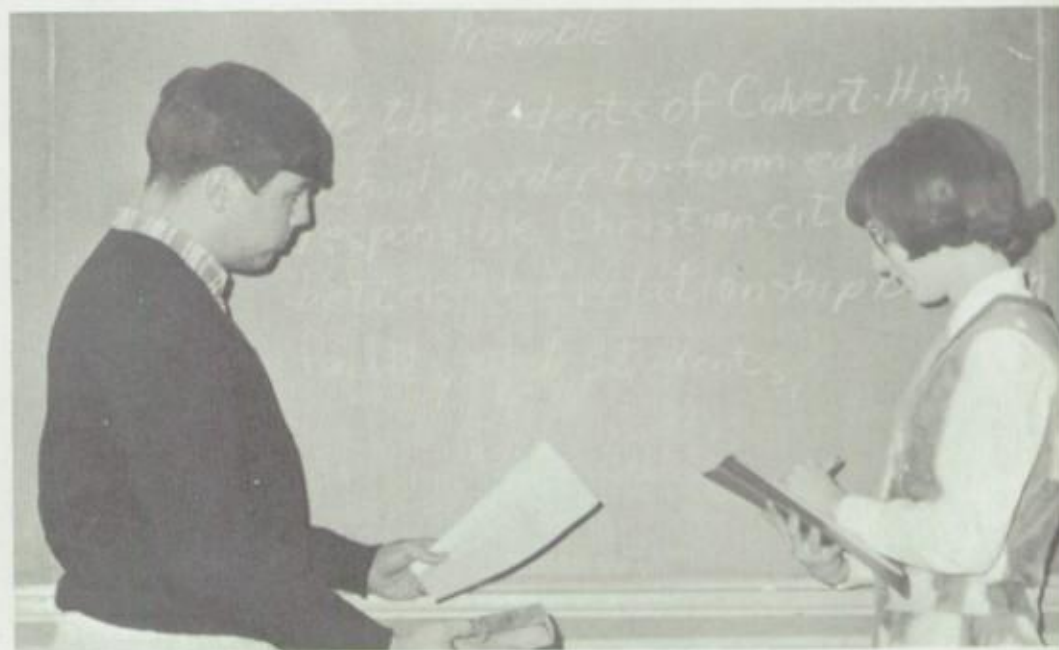

Raiding the last supply of Latin pins, president Dennis Ranker waits for fellow salesman Joseph Zirger.

President of the FTA Laura Dow assists teachers on Parents Night.

President of the St. Genevieve French club, Rachael Botton report to members on the monastery of Mount St. Michael.

During a meeting of the Student Advisory Board president Jerome Schlick, and member Linda Ranker draw up the preamble to their constitution.

TO CALVERT'S STAGE IN 'MY FAIR LADY'

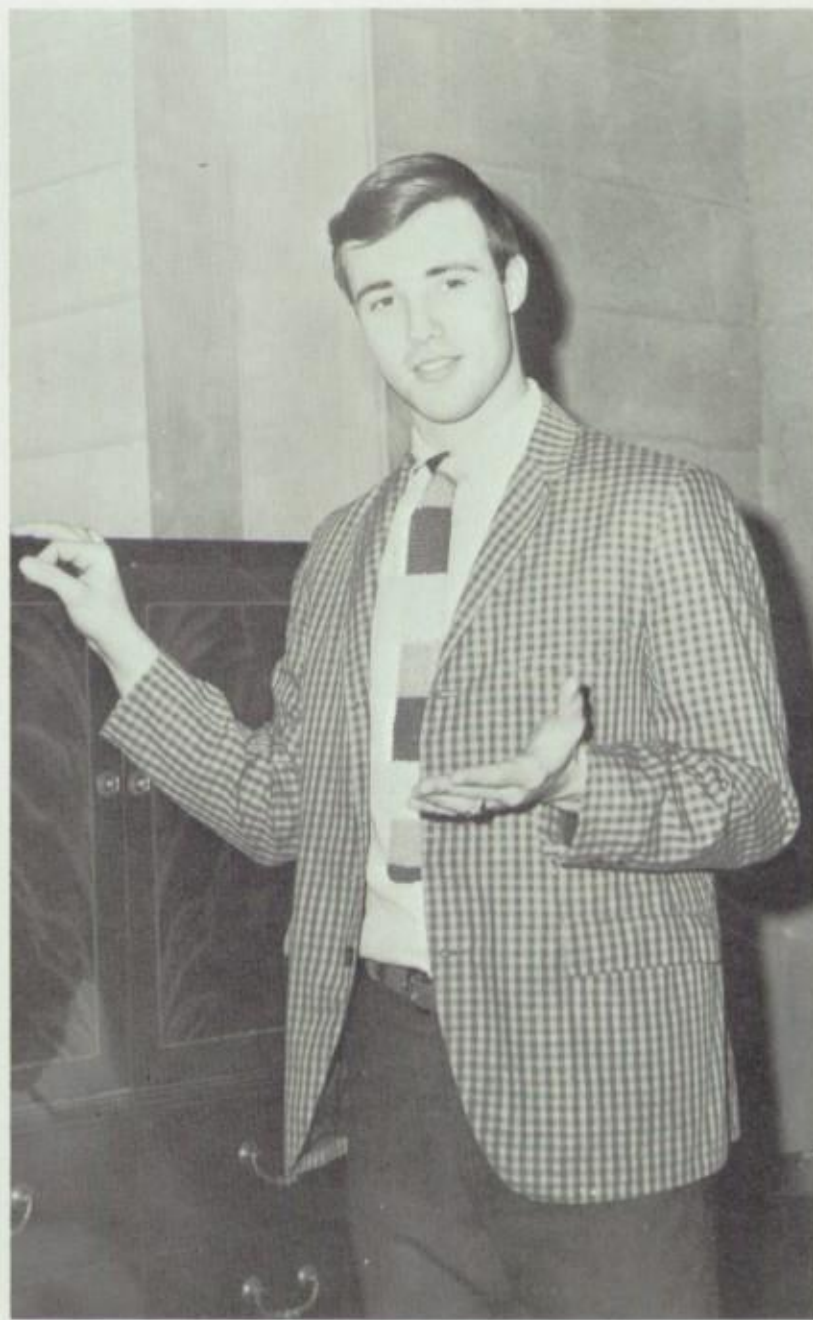

Eliza, played by Patricia Musgrave, thinks "Wouldn't it be lovely" as she dreams about being a lady.

The socially elite Eliza, played by Linda Baumgartner, indignantly exclaims, "You'd better leave a note for Mrs. Pearce about the coffee; for she won't be told by me."

"I put it to you and I leave it to you!" Sly Doolittle, played by Jerome Schlick, complacently makes his request for money.

"Why can't a woman be more like a man?" A mystified Henry Higgins, played by Roger Dariano, asks Colonel Pickering.

Colonel Pickering, portrayed by Carl Zalar, exclaims, "You did it! You did it!"; after Eliza has succeeded in her social debut.

STORY OF BETHLEHEM RETOLD BY STUDENTS;

Depicting Joseph and Mary, Joseph Zirger and Laura Dow gaze devoutly at the Infant in the Christmas pageant.

UNDERCLASSMEN DEVOTE SPARE TIME TO SONG

Freshmen and sophomores taking part in the Choral club are: (FIRST ROW) R. Warnement, J. Herbert, M. Schreiner, C. Margraf, R. Heilman, L. Allman, J. Gaietto, C. Etzkorn, C. Brown, A. Kraft, J. The solemn, dignified senior boys portray the great prophets in the annual Christmas pageant.

After a very mixed-up night Ralph, Michael Sauber and Betty, Elaine Arrington, wait for Ralph's father, Jerome Schlick, to take them to school.

'FATHER KNOWS BEST'

Kathy's friend, Cynthia Krupp, tags behind Bud, Mike Brown, who is forced to be polite and carry her suitcase.

The garden club members, Patricia Hoover, Catherine Lawson, Rita Zoeller, Beatrice Willman, and Janis Rohrbach, give Mrs. Anderson, Linda Clouse, a few "hints" for her table arrangement.

EXCELS ON STAGE, REVEALS HIDDEN TALENT

Mother tells Kathy, Shirley Breidenbach, to listen to her father, Rad Ewing, because father knows best.

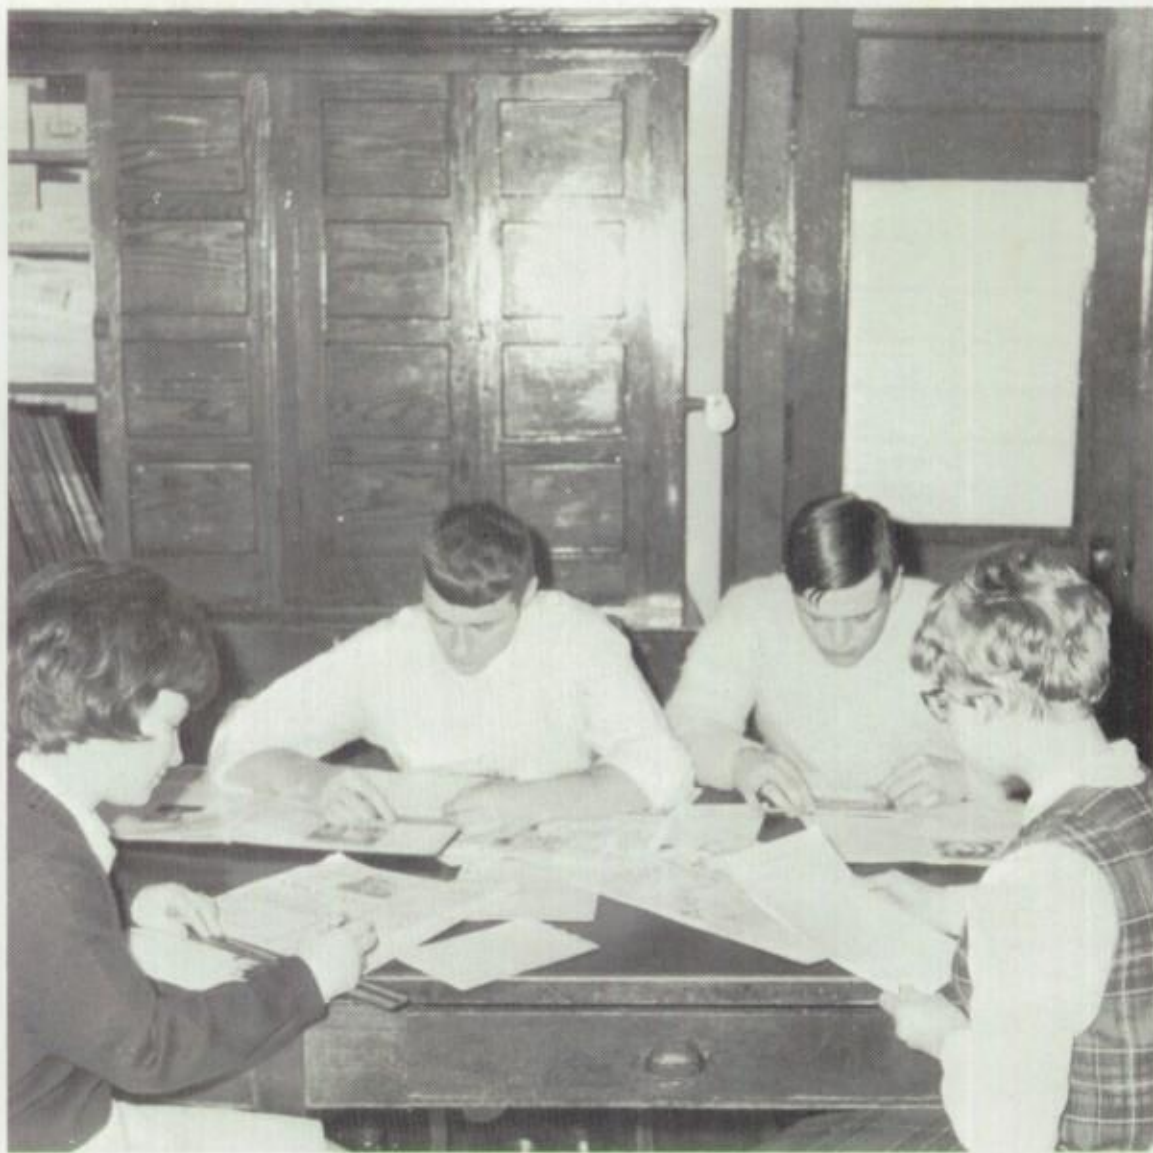

Repairman, Robert Wise is stopped by the policeman, Francis Yost, before he hits Bud and his friend, Larry Kirian.

CALVERT NEWS REPORTS SCHOOL ACTIVITIES,

Gathering ideas for their stories are the feature writers, Geraldine Kuhn, Maria Buko, Dennis Ranker, Laura Dow, Radford Ewing, and Patricia Musgrave.

Page editors Kathryn West, Roger Frisch, Joseph DeRose and Cynthia Krupp work on their layouts for another excellent issue of the "Calvert News."

Typists, Judith Herbert, Katherine Lawson, Linda Smith, Rita Zoeller, Katherine Depinet, and Teresa Leahy, do their part to help get the paper out on time.

Over the river and through the woods, the business managers, Vicky Carter, Judy Dryfuse, and David Joseph, rush posthaste to mail the papers.

VOICES OPINIONS OF STUDENTS

Sports writers Richard Reinhart and Joseph Zirger look over their assignments.

Paul Distel, editor-in-chief, checks crop marks on glossies for the next issue of The Calvert News.

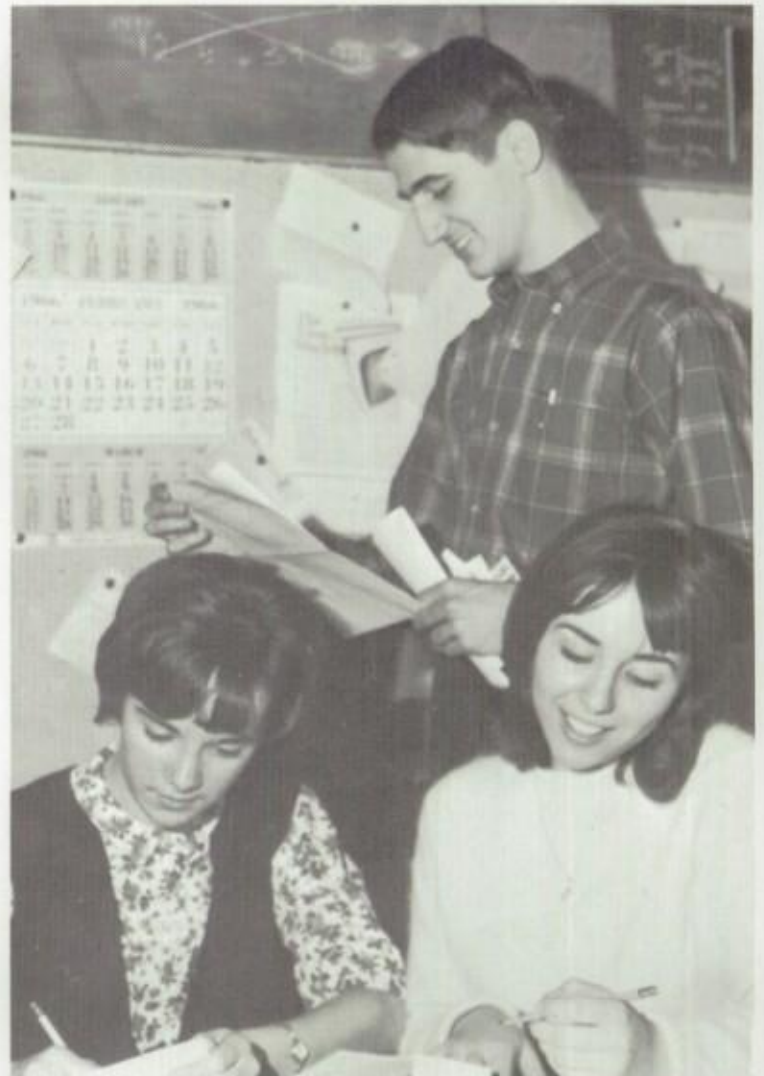

Senior news writers, Paul Reinbolt, Sally Leahy, Nancy Gaydos, Jeanne Wank, Joyce Folk, (SEATED): Steve Gordon, Jane Warnement, Cheryl Hopple, Linda Ranker, Dorothy Akers, Irene Reinman, and Karen Barnhart, (STANDING), examine pictures for next issue.

YEARBOOK STAFF REMEMBERS A YEAR GONE BY,

Plans for yearbook are discussed by senior staff members D. Joseph, C. Reamer, M. J. Welter, and C. Detwiler. Lurking in the back ground and peering over shoulders are Calvert News spies.

Patricia Guthrie works with co-editors Elaine Arrington and Gerard Pahl to meet the next deadline.

Junior staff members J. Weller, J. Gaydos, D. Frankhart, E. Williams, B. Smith, and S. Huss plan layouts and captions while J. Reymann, J. Moore, and R. Nye discuss future pictures.

A NIGHT UNFORGETTABLE

Long dresses and soft music create an unforgettable memory.

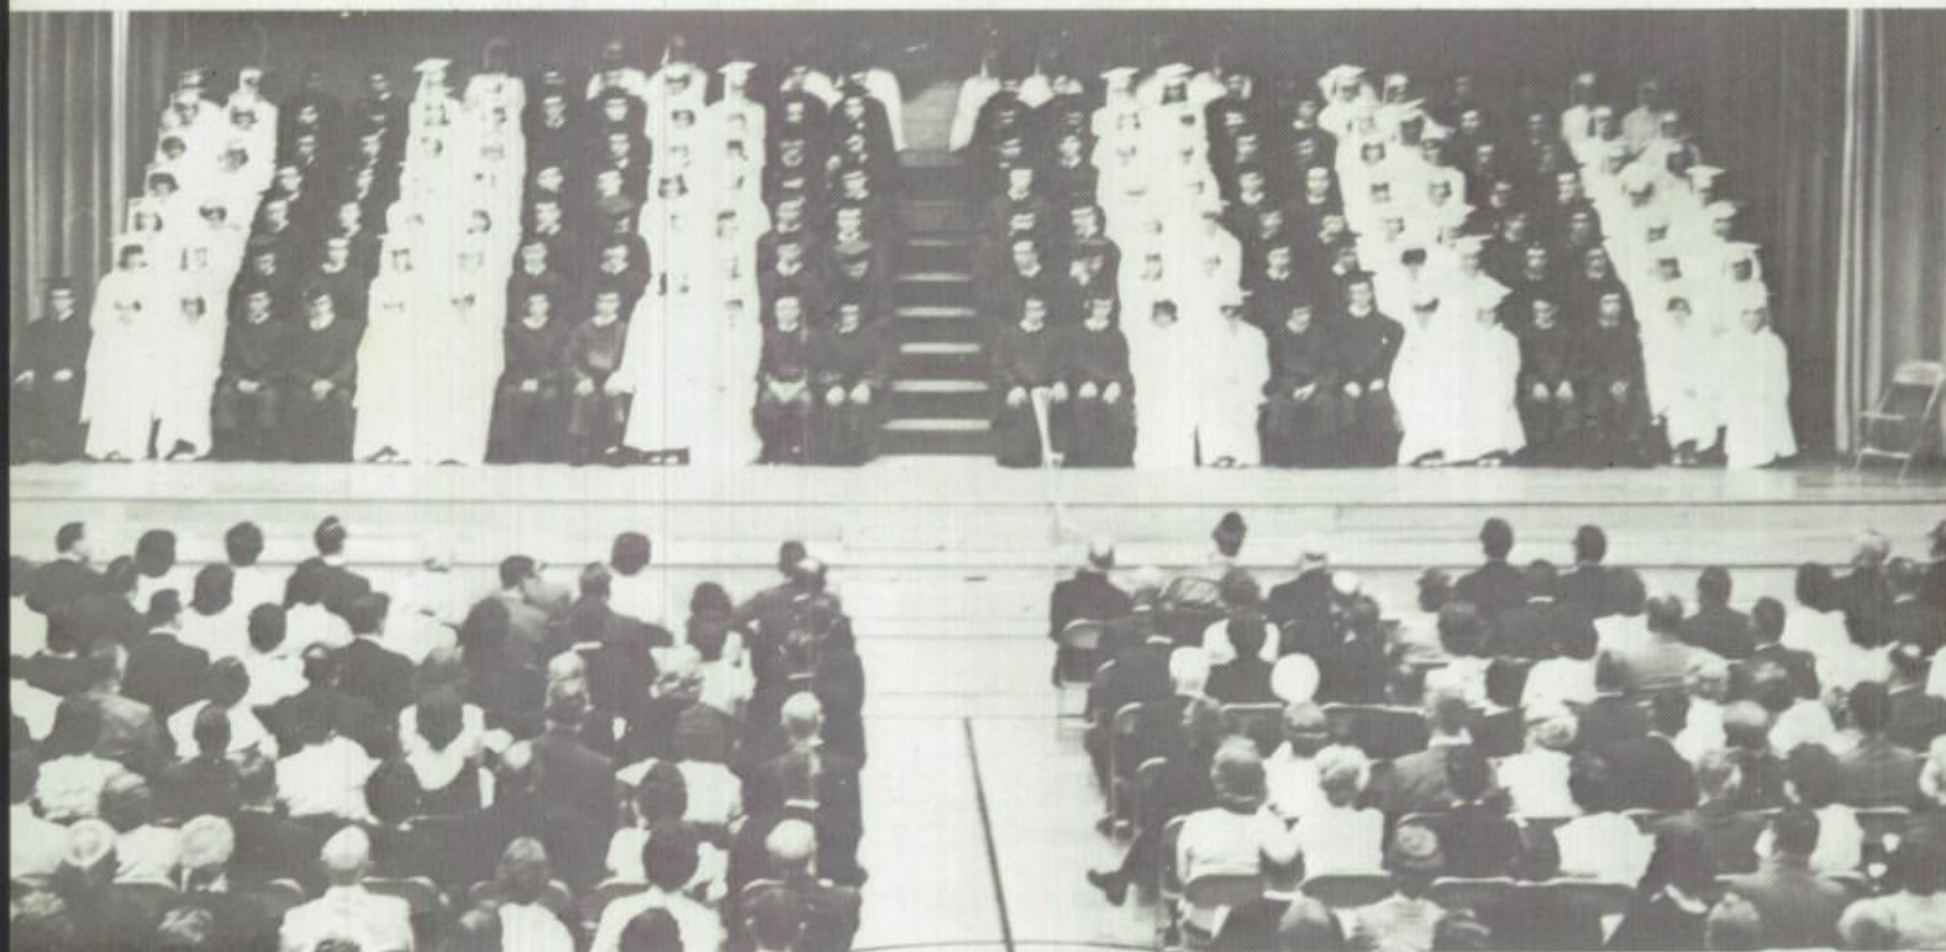

"May I have this dance?"

Happy couples and slow dances complete a perfect prom.

MAY CROWNING, GRADUATION CLIMAX YEAR;

In the presence of proud parents and friends, senior graduates assemble for the last time.

Seniors Jonathon Daniel and Karen Barnhart were chosen for the honor of May Crowning by their classmates.

Leading their class scholastically, valedictorian Richard Reinhart and salutatorian Karen Barnhart don caps and gowns in preparation for the big night.
